LESTER REID ACADEMIC ENRICHMENT FUND
Department of Classics, Dartmouth College
DEADLINE: May 20th of every year

Review of applications will begin on May 1st. Students needing to secure funding in order to accept a position in a summer seminar, course, or excavation et al. may apply early to the Department and specify the program’s deadlines on their applications. Receipt of applications closes on May 20th.

Date: ________________________________

Name: ________________________________

Class: ________________________________

Major: ________________________________

Hinman: ________________________________

Support is requested for: Term ________ Year ____________

Brief Description/Rationale of Project (250 Words or less; use the reverse of this form if needed):
Amount Requested (Itemize: travel, tuition, supplies, etc., not to exceed $750.00):

Please indicate prior funding received from the Department, including the dates, amounts, and title(s) of the project(s).

Signature of Student: ____________________________________________

Signature of Major Advisor: ______________________________________

Include a letter of recommendation from a faculty member of the Classics Department

Include a letter of acceptance (if appropriate) from the program or internship to which you are applying.

Recipients of a Lester Reid ’56 award must submit a report (250 words) of their work to the Department within three months of completing the work for which they received funding.

Submit application to:
Lester Reid ’56 Academic Enrichment Fund
Department of Classics
Dartmouth College
6086 Reed Hall, room 201
Hanover, NH 03755

Revised 8/2/2013